

Regulations governing the European Baccalaureate 2017

Written and oral examinations

a) Written examinations

Candidates will take 5 written examinations:

- i. L1 or L1 Advanced for pupils who followed the course
- ii. L2 or L2 Advanced for pupils who followed the course
- iii. Mathematics 3 or 5 periods
- iv. Option (4 periods)
- v. another option (4 periods)

b) Oral examinations

Candidates will take three oral examinations:

- i. If candidates have followed the advanced course → L1 Advanced
Otherwise → L1
- ii. Choice possible between:
  - L2 or L2 Advanced if taken).
  - History 2p
  - History 4p
  - Geography 2p
  - Geography 4p
- ii. If candidates have followed the advanced course in Mathematics → Advanced Mathematics
Otherwise, choice possible between:
  - Biology 2p
  - Biology 4p
  - Physics 4p
  - Chemistry 4p
  - Philosophy 2p
  - Philosophy 4p
  - Language 3
  - Language 4

c) Constraints:

- Subjects which are taken as the 4th or 5th written examination cannot be taken as orals.
- A complementary course cannot be offered for oral examination in the Baccalaureate.

1. Final mark

The Baccalaureate final mark consists of:

- The A1 mark 10%      The A2 mark 10%
- the mark B (Prebac or tests) 30%
- the written examinations 35% (7% per written exam)
- The oral examinations 15% (5% per oral exam)